

If this goes through it will be greatly affecting a hobby that has helped save many lives. I am from San Diego and with the recent fires the Ham operators were a valuable asset. BPL will force many to stop operating which will mean that they will not be around for the next fire or other disaster. I greatly oppose BPL and hope that it's implementation is reconsidered.